

About Cosmic People

Cosmic People are a DSA-QAG accredited provider of NMH support.

We are passionate and proud of the service we provide and have a proven track record of delivering a quality service to the students of various universities nationwide.

- An experienced NMH provider with a proven track record who aims to deliver a quality service at a competitive cost
- A family owned business. We are passionate and proud of the support we provide and always put the students' needs at the heart of everything we do
- Accredited membership – REC members, NADP members, NMH Association members DSA-QAG
- We strictly adhere to REC recruitment guidance, resulting in rigorous internal registration and compliance processes
- An "Investors in People" company
- Providing all student support in line with current SFE guidelines and legislation
- All support provided is in line with each student's individual DSA Assessment of Needs report, and recommendations therein
- All Cosmic People staff are courteous and friendly, with customer service focus and disability awareness
- Providers of Examination Support Workers in line with SFE guidelines for this support
- Public Liability Insurance covering £10,000,000
- Testimonials available from service users; students, support staff, Heads of Disability
- Company Health & Safety policy
- Company Complaints procedure
- Company data protection policy

